

Addressing the inequities that exist in the arts by providing underserved students access to extracurricular arts activities they otherwise would not be able to enjoy. AFCC Access allows children to boost their confidence, tap into their creativity, and build strong social connections with their peers.

AFCC ACCESS

Music Student at Sturgis Charter

Cape Cod Museum of Art

AFCC ACCESS

Students are more engaged in the world when they participate in the arts!

Programming paid for through Access:

Tap; drama workshops of all levels; Lion King vacation camp; summer art camps; creative movement; jazz; improv; Broadway kids; modern dance; culinary arts; school vacation art week camps; teen acting class; violin lessons; and comedy workshops.

Field trips taken included trips to the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, Fuller Craft Museum, Barnstable Performing Arts Center, Institute of Contemporary Art, Peabody Essex, Boston Symphony Hall, Cotuit Center for the Arts, and a trip to New York City to see Broadway!

Approximately $40K supported grants creating access to arts and culture for free for local students and families.

Programs like Musical Discoveries for toddlers, art mentorships for teens, multicultural art series for parents and children, regular workshops for at-risk youth, and many more.

Community partners:

Grandparents Raising Grandchildren, Cape Cod Children's Place, Big Brothers, Big Sisters, Harwich Junior Theater, Cape Symphony, Cotuit Center for the Arts, PAAM, Cape Museum of Art, Cultural Center, Cape Cod CAN

51

Individual students funded totalling $10K+ to arts organizations

440

Students were supported with a bus stipend representing 9 local schools

$40K

In AFCC Access Grants supporting 343 students

